

ANTHONY PANTALENO, PH.D.

EDUCATION:	Queens College(CUNY)	Psychology	B.A.	1975
	Pace University	School Psychology	M.S. Ed.	1977
	Fordham University	School Psychology	Ph.D.	1986

PROFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

1978-present	School Psychologist, Elwood Public Schools, Greenlawn, NY Recipient, 2007 New York Association of School Psychologists (NYASP) Practitioner of the Year. Recipient, 2008 Psychologist Of the Year, Suffolk County Psychological Association.
2003-present	Director, Pantaleno Psychological Services, Commack, NY
1987-2003	Institute for Behavioral Health, Commack, NY
1999-present	Clinical Affiliate Professor, St. Johns University
2005-present	Clinical Affiliate Professor, Adelphi University
1986-1987	Assistant Psychologist, Schneider Children's Hospital Division of Child Development, New Hyde Park, NY
2004-present	Operation Respect, Program Advisor, Elwood-John H. Glenn H.S.
1986-2004	Natural Helpers of Long Island (NHLI), Coordinator and Trainer
1977-1978	School Psychologist Patchogue-Medford Pubic Schools, Patchogue, NY
1978-1981	Adjunct Assistant Instructor, School Psychology Program Pace University, New York, NY
1977	Methadone Maintenance Counselor Suffolk County Drug Control Authority, South Huntington, NY
1976-1977	Counselor, University Counseling Center, Pace University, New York

LICENSES/CERTIFICATES

Albert Ellis Institute, Associate Fellow, 1989
NYS Licensed Psychologist, 1987
NYS Certified School Psychologist, Permanent, 1977

REFERENCES Available on request

MOST RECENT PUBLICATIONS:

On Becoming More Compassionate Therapists, Teachers, Students, Parents, Humans:
The Path to Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction.

Suffolk County Psychological Association Newsletter, August, 2008

School Psychology's Next Generation: Hello EQ--Bye-Bye IQ.

Suffolk County Psychological Association Newsletter, Spring, 2007

A Proposal for Evaluating School Psychol. Services: A Mental Health "Report Card".
The New York School Psychologist, Fall 2006, Winter 2007, Spring 2007.